CARNIVAL QUEEN

The climax of an evening crammed with fun and entertainment will be the crowning of one of the young ladies whose pictures appear above as Queen of Drayton Valley's Fourth Annual Winter Ice Carnival. The Ice Carnival will be held at the skating Rink in Drayton Valley, Saturday, February 7th, 1959, commencing at 8.00 o'clock in the evening.

Choice for Queen will be determined, as it has been previously, by the number of votes cast, with each ticket representing one vote. Tickets are on sale and may be purchased from the girls, or from their sponsors. Winner in 1956 was Joy Ann Patterson; in 1957 Sophie Hotra was crowned Queen, and last year, in 1958, Sherry Scott was the winner. Who will our 1959 winner be? You can help determine that by casting your ballots for the girl of your choice.

KEN MASON'S COLUMN:

Chalk up a victory for Her Majesty's Loyal Opposition at a time when the Legislature isn't in session, but that's what it amounted to last week when the government unveiled plans for an expanded air ambulance service in Alberta.

Because Opposition members -- notably those representing northern ridings -- had for the past three years pressed the government to organize an air ambulance service along the lines of the one operated by the Saskatchewan government.

They didn't get exactly that, but what they did get was greatly improved service and, in effect, an admission from the government that the service available in the past has been something less than adequate.

As outlined by Premier Manning at a press conference, the flying ambulances will be operated by two charter aviation companies based in Edmonton -- Pacific Western Airlines and Gateway Aviation Ltd.

The cost to the patient will be $25 no matter how long the flight, and the government will pick up the remainder of the bill.

The expanded service will be administered by the health department. Until now, any ambulance flights arranged through the government were handled by the welfare department.

However, the service in the past has operated in a somewhat hit-and-miss fashion. Not enough people knew it was available, and those who did sometimes had trouble arranging an ambulance flight because they weren't able to contact the handful of government officials in Edmonton who had authority to requisition an aircraft.

Under the new system, ther will be a single telephone number in Edmonton for receiving ambulance flight calls. All calls will be received by a phone answering service, which will relay them to one of several health department officials who have authority to dispatch a flight.

The official contacted will first determine whether air evacuation is necessary in the particular case. If so, a doctor will be dispatched from the University Hospital with one of the emergency medical kits to be kept on hand there at all times.

Meanwhile, the airport will have been notified and if weather permits crews will be getting a plane to take off. Health department officials estimate a medical team can be airborne within an hour and a half after a call is received.

The government is now in the process of sending out information on the service -- including the phone number to call -- to all doctors, hospitals, RCMP detachments and members of the Legislature.

Health Minister Dr. J. D. Rose says it will be necessary to screen all calls to prevent abuse of the service. In addition, he says, there will be some cases where road or rail transportation will be better for the patient, or where it will be better to fly emergency aid to the patient. (cont'd next column)

In extreme cases, emergency teams could be parachuted. One of the members of the seven-man medical advisory board set up to administer the service is a former paratrooper. In addition, helecopters will be chartered for calls to areas where fixed-wing aircraft can't land.

Government officials anticipate the service will operate mainly in the north, where there is more likelihood of accidents or serious illness occurring in remote places. However, southern residents have yet to be heard from on that score, and they may have something to say.

The background of the air ambulance service situation is interesting. For three years in a row, Liberal MLAs introduced resolutions asking the government to set up a flying ambulance program. Every year, the government replied that an adequate service is already provide.

But last year the debate went a little farther. Michael Maccagno, member for Lac La Biche and originator of the motion, cited cases from his area in which officials had difficulty arranging an ambulance flight.

The health minister promised to study the matter in the ensuing year and find ways of improving the service. It was suggested that one problem might be lack of information on how to obtain the service. Dr. Ross suggested telephone numbers might be distributed to officials in all areas where the service might be needed.

On studying the matter during the year, the minister apparently decided there was plenty of room for improvement in the service and -- more power to him -- he took action to improve it.

ANGLICAN W.A. HOLD MEETING.

The December meeting of the Anglican Women's Auxiliary featured a Christmas party. Mrs Halliday brought a miniature Christmas tree and candles for the table. Gifts were exchanged among the members.

The main business consisted in hearing the reports of the catering committees, Three cold suppers were served, to the Legion, the Lions Club and Pan American Club. It was decided that the W.A. would pay for the gifts and candy for the Sunday School Christmas Party. As usual the ladies packed and distributed boxes of Christmas goodies for old-timers in this area.

The Election of Officers for 1959 followed. They are as follows: Mrs Dvies, president; Mrs E. Williams, vice-president; Mrs G. Brown, secretary; Mrs Oslund, treasurer; Mrs Starling Dorcas Secretary, Mrs Lecky, Little Helpers.

The January meeting of the W.A. was held at the home of Mrs Oslund. We were pleased to have two visitors, Mrs Urchyshyn and Mrs Johanneson. The ladies were sorry to hear of the illness of Mrs L. Williams and Mr Alex Starling, husband of Mrs Starling.

During the business metting it was decided that Mrs Halliday would take part in the World Day of Prayer service which will be held On Friday, February 13. (continued inside.)

FOOD FOR THOUGHT.
BY: Danita Boling.

Whoever said that "Time Flies" must have lived at least one week in Drayton Valley! It seems to me that we can do without the sympathy of our well meaning city friends who are inclined to think that we, our here in Drayton Valley, have nothing to do! Invite some of them out here for a few days and watch them fall by the wayside, in a state of utter exhaustion, when trying to keep up with our daily routine of teas, coffees, partys of all sorts, curling, ice skating, dances, bake sales and just general "get togethers". Guess we have clean sparkly lungs from our nice fresh air, but the poor city people have their lungs filled with all sorts of peculair things and simply can't take it! All this chatter stems from the fact that we were in the City for two days this week and we were glad to get home. Especially glad because wer were privileged to help surprise one of our town's leading citizens with a birthday party. He was most coy about telling his age, but aren't we all? I can't divulge who had a birthday, but I can say, "Many Happy Returns" to Ozzie, also to Beattie and if you folks want to try and guess the rest, it is entirely up to you.

Once again the male population of the world screamed loud enough to be heard. The famous Sack dress, also the Pyramid, and the Trapeze, have been outlawed simply because the men made such a fuss! I can't say that I particularly liked these styles either, but I resent the fact that our territory of fashion has to bow to the male opinion. Go on, lads, play with your rockets and trips to the moon; find yourself a nice comfortable orbit and get into it! Since men graduated from the Toga they haven't been able to add much to their own "stylish selves", except add or substract buttons from their suit coats!

Anyway, there will be no extreme styles in m'lady's new Spring wardrobe. The basic black, the simple sheath, and the tailored suit are all back with us in all their glory. The waistline is exactly where it is supposed to be, and the rule for length is that the skirt should cover the knees when m'lady is seated. But you didn't intend for us to go that far, did you, boys? Hats will be small and slightly decorative. Baubles and Bangles are still good.

(next column)

Here is another recipe, a dessert that does not have to be cooked. It is nice and rich and guaranteed to make a first class mess in your kitchen while preparing it. You'll have to prepare it at least 8 hours in advance, but after that your worries are over;

ANGEL CAKE DELIGHT: 1 large package, (or 2 small) of chocolate chips, 3 tablespoons sugar,. Melt the above in a double boiler and cool. Separate 3 eggs, beat the yolks and add to the above mixture. Beat egg whites until stiff and fold into above. Break one small Angel cake (bakery or grocery store variety) into pieces and put half of the cake pieces on the bottom of a pyrex dish or pan about 9"x13" or 14", cover the cake with half the chocolate mixture. Repeat for the second layer and cover the last chocolate topping with chopped walnut meats. Let stand in refrigerator for 6 to 8 hours. Cut into small squares to serve. This will serve 12 to 16 as it is very rich. Happy Pounds to you!

My thought for today is dedicated to "The Man": "A Hair in the head is worth two in the Brush!"

JUVENILE HOCKEY TEAMS.

Hockey schedules are getting well underway with a Juvenile Hockey Team organized under the coaching of Jack Falls and Bill Repka, for No. 1 team; coaching No. 2 team is Jerry LaRose and Larry Davidson, with Bryce Lindgren and M.C. Davies for No. 3 team.

Ages for Juvenile Hockey Teams are 11 to 15.

On Jan. 27 the Oilers will play Wilmar Foods.
On Jan. 29 Oilers play against Lindgren.
On Jan. 30 Lindgren plays Wilmar Foods in the Juvenile Hockey League.

Transfers this time to France. It goes without saying that they will be greatly missed by their many friends in Alberta.

Mr Krause, manager for Scona Tire Co., has been away from work this week but it is not the kind of holiday anyone enjoys. An infection in the face caused such swelling that his own family scarcely recognized him.

The W.I. held its regular monthly meeting at Mrs Krause's home on Monday evening. Two new members, Mrs Bowman and Mrs Hettinger, joined.

The Relief Committee reported that six needy families had been helped during the month.

The Library Representative reported that the W.I. had donated $95.10 to the Community Library during 1958. Members voted to support the Cerebral Palsy "Foot of Nickels" again this year.

Plans are being made for a bazaar, bake sale and strawberry tea on March 14. It will be held in the Community Hall. Mrs Oscar will convene the Bazaar. Mrs Krause will dress a doll for the raffle.

Roll call was answered by "How I Met My Husband" Mrs David Brown was hostess and Mrs Oscar had the contest. Mrs Nordby won with a score of 96%

The February meeting will be held on the third Monday at eight o'clock in Mrs Deby's home.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE MEETS.

A good representation of Drayton Valley businessmen were on hand for the Chamber of Commerce meeting held in the Gardium Room Monday evening, January 19th. President Ozzie Williamson was in charge of the meeting.

A printed brochure giving facts about Drayton Valley, early history, present development, resources, population, number of business places, etc. was discussed. Mr Deby and Mr John MacKenzie were named to head a committee to gather the necessary facts and present them to the Alberta government who will print them into the form of a brochure.

Also discussed was the government's plans to establish a park in this area; the proposed park would be about 80 acres in extent. Als discussed were possible locations for the setting up of wayside tables and picnic grounds, a project which is proposed by the Department of Highways and which would be located at strategic points along the highway, probably Highway #57.

METER RINK WINS PLAYOFF

The Meier Rink, in competition against the Reglin Rink won a very tight and close game in the British Counsels Playoffs in Drayton Valley Curling Rink, last Tuesday. The Meier Rink won 9-8 on an extra end.

As a result of the game the Meier Rink will now go to Jasper to compete in Zone 16 Briar which takes in all rinks west of Stony Plain to Jasper.

Lineup of the winning rink was: A.Meier, Skip; Bill Gibeau, Third; Lou Girard, Second, and Jim Fripps, Lead. The Reglin Rink was: Paul Reglin, Skip; Marvin Telego, Third; Ralph Bittorf, Second, and Tom McCorchuk, Lead.

Skip Adrian Meier said that in his twelve years in curling he had never run into stiffer competition than that given him by the Reglin Rink, and he doubted if there would be competition as stiff in Jasper, since Drayton Valley itself has a number of first-class curlers.

The Meier Rink will play in Jasper this weekend.

BOXING CLUB DRAWS GOOD ATTENDANCE

The recently formed Pembina Boxing Association in their weekly meetings on Friday evenings in the Scout Hall have had a very good attendance, with interest keen.

Equipment is being gathered together for a complete athletic program. Much equipment has already been donated and other has been promised.

The Boxing Association requests, however, that children under twelve years of age do not attend the meetings in Scout Hall. The program is geared to fit ages from twelve on up and present plans do not call for the inclusion of ages below twelve. A checker will be at the door at future meetings to check ages.

Wilful damage has been done to the wall of the Scout Hall by some of the younger ones who have attended the meetings, and if any future damage is done to the hall, it is announced, the guilty parties will have to make full payment on the damage.

There are some very good boxers in this area and it shouldn't be too hard to get up a good boxing card in the near future. The Boxing Association is sponsored by the Drayton Valley Legion.

HUGE PEMBINA FIELD BRINGS $2,277,435. INTO GOVERNMENT TREASURY.

When projected against a map of other Canadian oilfields the Pembina Field still looms up as a mighty big Mr Big among oilfields. This was borne out by the very excellent price which was obtained by the provincial government on the sale of oil-drilling leases in the Pembina Field on the recent land sale. While the largest per-acre price was paid for land in the Swan Hills district, yet, considering the state of the present oil market situation, and the fact that the Pembina Field is now five years old, oil-wise, the pricespaid for the leases in this field were remarkably high.

Following is a listing of the Pembina sales:
W½ 10-49-6W5, N½ 24, SE¼ 24-49-7W5, 800 acres, Murphy Canadian Oil Co. $116,000.00, an average of $145.00 per acre.

DRAYTON VALLEY CURLING RINK HAS SEMI-OFFICIAL OPENING.

What might be termed as a semi-official opening of Drayton Valley's fine curling rink was held on Sunday, January 25, when rinks from Edmonton and other places came to play against local rinks.

In the 1.30 draw Bransburg played against the Ward Rink, Tomahawk played the Carter Rink, Stony Plain played Davis Rink, Buck Creek played against Stevenson Rink and an Edmonton rink, Vic Sopeak, played against Reglin.

In the 4.00 o'clock draw Myler of the Thistle Curling Club in Edmonton played against the Sawatsky Rink, Al Shaver, of CFRN, Edmonton, curled against the Casey Rink, Bud Olson, of Edmonton, for Canadian Ice Machine Co, who installed the equipment for the artificial ice in the curling rink against McMahon, Ed. Liston of Edmonton against the Rose Rink and Ed. Fender, of Edmonton, against the Bullen Rink.

Following the Benspiel a buffet supper was served by the Ladies Curling Club in the Banquet room of the rink. M.C. for the occasion was "Spike" Brown, who did a first-class job in that position. He introduced Deputy Mayor Pickup who spoke in behalf of the Town of Drayton Valley to welcome the vistors and to commend the Curling Club on their fine achievement. He likened the Drayton Valley Curling Association to a link in a giant chain of fellowship binding communities together. First President, Billy Rose was introduced and spoke briefly followed Ed. Fender, speaking for the Alberta Curling Association. Hal Pawson, Sports Editor for the Edmonton Journal was introduced and spoke briefly, followed by Bud Olson, of Canadian Ice Machines. Al Shaver, of CFRN, in his inimitable fashion, spoke for a few moments. Al Casey, present President of the local Curling Club was introduced
